ARNOLD GIRL'S PARENTS RICH DOCTOR SHOT APPEAL TO GOVERNMENT TO HELP FIND DAUGHTER

Lawyer for Family Enlists Secret Service and Post-Office Department in Hunt.

FLYNN IS CONSULTED.

Father, Fearing Foul Play, Asks Police to Drag Lakes in Central Park.

Admission was finally made this after noon that the aid of the Post Office Department had been invoked in the search for Miss Dorothy H. C. Arnold, the so clety girl who disappeared on Dec. 12. This newest move in the world-wide hun for the missing young woman came as a direct result of the story, first printed in this paper, that Miss Arnold was at the Post Office on the day she vanished, and there received a letter from abroad which may have inspired her sudden flight out of the city and possibly out of the country.

Attorney John S. Kelth owned up late to-day that he had been to the Government Secret Service Bureau.

"I first went there several weeks age," he added, hastily. "But my purpose was to trace, if possible, certain outgoing mail that may have been posted by Miss Arnold."
